Transcription & Translation Assessment

Scientists can put spider genes into yeast. The yeast can decode the spider genes to make spider silk protein. Why is this so? Evaluate the models.

1. Which model correctly explains what happens inside the yeast cell?

2. Explain why one model is correct and the other one isn’t.